

Calling all Electric Flyers

If you want to find out what is happening around Australia in electric flight whether indoor, outdoor, gliding, scale, sport or racing, then you should join the Australian Electric Flight Association. AEFA Members receive the monthly Newsletter with a wealth of information on latest developments in electrics, members' new projects, reports, details and photos, a National schedule of forthcoming Fun-Fly and competition events and more. If you are interested in competition, then you can become right up to date with classes, rules, results and equipment used.

To join, all you have to do is fill in the attached entry form and follow the instructions, or go on to the Web and download it www.aefanet.com
